BY FORTUNE TELLER. She Said That a Marriage in the Fricke Family Would Cause

Commotion, and It Did.

COUPLE WENT OUT TO CLAYTON

Other Seekers After Matrimonial Bliss Also Visit the County Gretna Green-Objection to Trust Fee.

The post-Lenten rush of Clayton elopements continued unabated Wednesday. Eight spry and happy young couples journeyed to the county seat, and their actions developed several stories out of the ordinary.

A fortune teller foretold the elopement of Eugene A. Neulle of No. 1711 South Eighth street and Minnie M. Fricke of No. 705 Rutger street. Only last week she told the lat-ter's sister, Miss Gussie Fricke, that there would soon be a sudden marriage in her house which would cause an awful commotion. And there was an awful commotion in both the Fricke and Nuelle households Tuesday night when the elopement was re-ported. Miss Nellie Fricke, a younger sister, cried out loud, and her brother, Henry Fricke, is now looking for Nuelle. The latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aloph Nuelle, were thunderstruck with the news, while their pastor, the Reverend C. M. Huber of St. Vincent's Church, denied with some warmth that the young man had been married by a Methodist minister, as was reported.

ried by a Methodist minister, as was reported.

Nuelle is secretary of a wholesale bakery company. Miss Fricke was his stenographer. Although acquainted with her two years, he only decided a month ago to ask her to be his sweetheart.

At Clayton Nuelle said Miss Fricke had given an assumed name, and he did not know whether they would get married. Father Huber Tuesday night positively denied that a Methodist minister performed the ceremony, and would neither affirm nor deny a report that he had sent them to the Archbishop for a dispensation, as Miss Fricke is a Protestant. The young couple Archbishop for a dispensation, as Miss Fricke is a Protestant. The young couple could not be found.

Fricke is a Protestant. The young couple could not be found.

Benjamin P. Philibert of No. 20 Little place and Bertha M. Drocge of No. 1620 North Seventeenth street objected to paying the trust fee, $\frac{1}{2}$, and Judge Wilson, who performed the ceremony, took possession of the certificate. Then Philibert said that it was a good thing that there were no bricks in the room. Judge Wilson finally compromised for $\frac{1}{2}$.

James E. Bailey, a stenographer in a railroad office, went to Clayton with Zuda M. Frier, who refused to give her address. They were married by Pastor Stultz of the Clayton Methodist Church, and returned to St. Louis, where they separated, going to their respective homes. They intend to live apart for a month. Bailey gave his address as No. $237 Fairmount avenue.

The other couples who went to Clayton for quiet marriages were Emanuel Ruff of St. Louis and Elizabeth Silva of Tipton, Mo.; Charles Rucknicgel and Emma Hansleben of Belleville; Frank Ferry of Effingham, Ill., and Anna Robinson of St. Louis; Merle E. Waterhouse and Lucy Meyer of St. Louis, and Charles Dominic and Lizzie Gatting of St. Louis.

At a meeting of the congregation of Third Baptist Church Wednesday night the resignation of the pastor, the Reverend Doctor R. P. Johnston, who resigns to accept a call from the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church of New York, was accepted.

Doctor Johnston's resignation was tendered during the church services last Sunday, and came as a surprise to most of his congregation. It takes effect May 1.

Resolutions prepared by the deacons of the church, to whom the resignation was referred, stating the reasons for Doctor Johnston's resignation, giving mention of the good work done by the pastor and expressing hope that he will be equally as successful in his new and larger field, were adopted. To the following deacons was left the question of pulpit supply until a regular pastor may be accepted by the congregation: Thomas Berks, A. D. Brown, Silas B. Jones, John Herget, W. C. Teasdale, E. V. Kyte, Joseph Guyett, A. W. Payne, W. B. Harris, George R. Neal and John Gallup, Jr.

Fire Insurance Agents Will Form

Local Organization.

Local fire insurance agents, to the number of thirty-five, met at the Mercantile Club Wednesday night, and, after a dinner, decided to effect a local organization for the protection of the insurance business. A committee, composed of H. M. Blossom, John R. Goodall, C. L. Crane, W. D. Hemenway and Major James L. Foley, was appointed to draft a plan for the perfection of the organization under the laws of the State in regard to fire insurance.

Considering the fact that large risks will be taken on the buildings at the World's Fair the problem of how to place the vast amount of insurance will have to be solved. Unless the present disposition of the foreign insurance companies is changed radically there will be a lack of insurance in St. Louis at that time. The revival meetings in progress at the West End Coliseum, under the conduct of William R. Newell of the Moody Bible Institute, are largely attended, and the interest seems to be decidedly on the increase. Mr. Newell has just completed the course of study in the book of Acts, and on Thursday evening he will begin a similar course in the book of Romans. This particular study will be taken up every Tuesday. Thursday and Friday evenings. Other meetings are held daily, except Wednesday, at 3 and 3 p. m.

cally there will be a lack of insurance in St. Louis at that time.

The new organization will seek to handle the abuses that have crept in since the dissolution of the old St. Louis Board of Fire Underwriters, through the existing State laws. The agentsc propose to avert the shrinkage in many important respects, although rates and schedules cannot be regulated legally. The meeting Wednesday night was presided over by George D. Markham, president, and F. H. Kreismann, secretary of the Missouri Association of Local Fire Insurance Agents.

A Constitutional Affection.

Sprays, washes, powders, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes, however long and persistently used, do not cure Catarrh. They relieve temporarily the inflammation in the throat and nose, and enable tinual rush of impure blood to these parts keeps up the irritation and ultimately produces ulceration of the glands, when the breath becomes exceedingly offensive and the soft bones of the nose are frequently destroyed. The catarrhal inflammation extends over the entire surface of the mucous members. you to breathe more easily and freely, but the conthe entire surface of the mucous membrane, or inner skin; the stomach, kidneys and lungs are often involved; the whole system soon becomes affected by the rapid absorption of poisonous matter into the blood, and the disease that you had hoped to cure with simple local remedies, assumes a dangerous form.

I had Catarrh about 15 years, and | tried during the time everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. At last I came to the conclusion that Catarrh must be a blood disease, and decided to give S. S. S. a trial. I could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and continued it three or four months, or until I was cured. Have not taken anything for six years, and am just as well as I ever was.—M. MAT-SON, Lapoer, Mich.

I had Catarrh so bad was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose and part of the bone sloughed off. The physicians gave me up as incurable. I determined to try S. S. S., and began to improve at once. It seemed to get at the scat of the disease, and after a fow weeks' treatment I was entirely cured, and for more than seven years have had no sign of the disease.—MRS. JOSE-PHIME POLIHILL, Due West, S. C.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease—a blood disease which is frequently inherited, and only a blood medicine, such as S. S. S., can remove the hereditary taint, destroy the poisons that have been accumulating in the system for years perhaps, and restore the blood to a healthy and pure condition. The inflamed membranes and diseased glands are healed by the righ, pure blood which is carried to them, and the offensive discharges from the nose, and the terrible headache and neuralgic pains cease. Chronic cases of the most desperate character and apparently hopeless, have been cured completely and permanently by the use of S. S. S.

Write our physicians fully about your case and they will cheerfully assist you by their advice. We charge nothing whatever for this service. Book free on application.
